FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 2020

Opening reception for Gilpin County Arts Association's 73rd Annual Juried Art Show 2020

We are located in Washington Hall at 117 Eureka St. Central City, CO 80427 right across the street from the Central City Opera House.

Please join Gilpin Arts for a FREE evening of the arts on Saturday, June 6th 2020 from 5pm to 8pm for the opening reception in Washington Hall for our 73rd annual juried art show. Over $3,000.00 in cash prizes will be awarded with a $500.00 Best in Show award and a newly added $100.00 President's choice award along with other awards in categories including jewelry, photography 2D and 3D. Consisting of a wide range of artwork including drawing, painting, pastel work, textiles, photography, ceramics, sculpture and more.

We are proud to announce this year's 2020 Jurors. Natasha Isenhour, Ira Sherman, Rob Lantz and our awards judge is Virginia Unsel.

One of our many missions at the Gilpin Arts Association is to carry the torch for the culture and arts of the City of Central and Black Hawk and Gilpin County in general. Including working with the Gilpin School's art program adding opening receptions and displaying the youth's artwork to continue to inspire the arts for years to come. This is the first year in 73 years we are including and encouraging all 50 states to enter our juried show using the call for entry site known as café. This event held by Gilpin Arts is the oldest in the state and is an exciting tradition for the Gilpin Arts Association one of which we are very proud to host.

The Gilpin County Arts Association was founded in 1947 and is located in a national historic landmark with great significance to the history of the great state of Colorado and Gilpin County.

We are a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization and a proud financial supporter of the RE-1 Gilpin County School Art Program.

Join us for a night of the arts. WE LOVE THE ARTS!!! Opening reception June, 6th 2020 5pm-8pm the show runs through August 15th 2020
